

List of features

*The following features will only appear to authenticated users.

Nav bar

Account dropdown which lets users login in, register, access login pages and sign-out.

A basket symbol showing a running total.

A basket animation that flashes when an item is added to the basket.

A product menu with all the categories and methods to search products by.

The product menu then drops down into further sub-categories.

The search bar is always visible to allow you to search for any product instantly.

The logo is a shortcut back to the landing page.

Footer

An email address with an emailto: tag in it so it opens the users default mail service.

The telephone number for the company.

Social icon links to the company's Facebook, Instagram and LinkedIn account.

Home

A landing image showcasing the quality of the images on the website.

There is a small div in the middle of the landing image explaining to the user a little about the website.

There is a 'shop now' button on the landing image.

Products

Products page

Number of products the search has returned.

Individual summaries of each product with the following information: Image, Special offer badge, Title, Price, Discount price (if applicable), link to the category, a rating score.

Users can click to the product detail using the photos.

The title is a link to the product details and changes colour on hover to alert the user to the link.

Product detail

The image of the product is a link to the full size photo of the product, which will open in a new tab.

There is a card with further information about the product.

Further information includes: reviews and a link to add a review*.

For photographs there is another card with these options: quantity, delivery choice*, 'add to basket' button and 'keep shopping' button.

User will receive a message saying whether review has been successfully added.

User will receive a message saying whether an item has been placed in the basket successfully.

For accessories, the user can also selected linked products to be associated with their purchase.

The linked products are a numerous as the accessory requires.

There is a select option for each linked product.

The select option has the user uploaded photos* and the photos from the store.

A small preview will appear as the select options change.

The small preview is also a link to a full size image.

There is an option to upload your own photographs.*

Basket

If the basket if empty, users will be notified and a button back to products is available.

Items in the basket are displayed in an order and contain: image, title, quantity, price, SKU, sub-total, delivery method, linked products and their preview images, and an edit button.

The linked product images are once again links.

The edit button opens a modal.

The modal gives users options to edit quantity, delivery type*, linked products (if applicable).

Users can also delete the item from the basket.

There is an empty basket button, should a user wish to delete all items.

There is also a "cost" summary at the bottom consisting of the following.

- Savings - tells the user how much money you have saved by buying the products on offer.

- Basket total

- The cost of the delivery, depending on if the free delivery threshold has been met.

- A message saying how much the user must spend to meet the free delivery threshold.

- Grand total, including the delivery

A checkout button

A keep shopping button

Additional features:

If the user has selected the same image more than once in a calendar, then there is a warning under the title.

If the user has an accessory but hasn't linked a product with it, a modal will appear before they are taken to the checkout.

The modal will have the option to continue or go back to the basket.

If the user changes a photograph from delivery to digital download, then it will automatically put the quantity to 1, as only one download is allowed.

Checkout

The checkout screen is split into the following sections: products, finance, delivery details, payment.

The products tells the user same information as in the basket.

In the checkout, instead of linked product images, the SKU is displayed as a reference point for the customer.

In the finance section, users can see the order total, delivery and grand total.

In the delivery section, users can fill out their name and address details.

Delivery details are remembered if the user is logged in.

There is a method of card payment.

There is a final reminder of how much your card will be charged.

There are two buttons: One to continue with payment, the other return to basket.

Checkout success

The user can see a summary of their recent order, including the order number.

There is a message saying that the order was successful and that an email receipt has been sent.

The summary has all the order and delivery information on it.

There is a button to continue shopping.

Authentication

Login

There is a simple and easy to use form to log into the user's account.

Logout *

There is a simple and easy button to press in order for the user to log out.

The basket is also emptied when the user logs out.

Register

There is a simple and easy to use form to register the user's account.

The user receives an email with a link to confirm their email.

There is a simple button to press for the user to confirm a valid email account.

Profiles*

My Profile page

User's see an accordion with the following categories: previous purchases, delivery information, order history, reviews, uploaded images.

Previous purchases

Users can see the products they have purchased. This includes an image, title and a download button.

The download button takes the user to a separate page where they can download the image.

They use can then return to the back.

In the previous purchases dropdown, the summary of downloaded items are displayed, along with the time of download.

Delivery information

The user can see their previous delivery information and update it.

Order history

The user can see previous orders, the order number and time of order.

There is a link, which changes cover on hover, to take the user to the checkout success page, where they can see the full order summary.

Reviews

All the user's reviews are stored here with details of the rating and content.

The user can delete or edit the reviews.

Uploaded images

The user can see all their previously uploaded images.

The user can delete their images.

A modal will check that the user definitely wants to delete the image.

The modal has two options: confirm or return to profile.

Like on the product detail page, there is a form for users to upload their images.

Admin profile page

If the user is a superuser, it can see all of the features.

A superuser can exclusively see a link to the full Django Admin site, where they can have full control over the website.

A retail assistant add a product, edit a product and see the latest 5 orders.

There is a link to the add product page.

There is a select to paginate the products.

The user can use the select to see certain products to edit.

When a category is chosen, the user will see the image, SKU and an edit or delete button.

The delete button will also trigger a modal, as with the reviews, asking for confirmation.

Adding products / reviews

There is a simple form with all the necessary fields validated.

There is a button to cancel or to add product /review.

If a product is added, the user is returned to the profile page with a success message being displayed.

If a review is added, the user is returned to the product detail page with a success message being displayed.

Editing products / review

There is a simple form with all the necessary fields validated.

There is a button to cancel or to edit product / review.

If a product is edited, the user is returned to the profile page with a success message being displayed.